

Data Scientist and Other Job Titles That appeal to me
Job Title	Education	Annual Salary	Work Environment (Industry)	States with highest employment	Job Outlook
Data Scientist	Bachelor's (Math, stats or comp science)	$108,020	Computer systems, insurance, technical consulting, scientific research	California, Texas, New York, Florida, Pennsylvania	36%
Software Developer & Quality Assurance Analyst	Bachelor's (Comp & Info tech or related field)	$130,160	Computer systems/design, insurance, technical consulting, scientific research	California, Texas, New York, Florida, Washington	17%
Actuary	Bachelor's (math, stats, business)	$120,000	Insurance companies, consulting	California, Texas, New York, Florida, Pennsylvania	22%
Information Security Analyst	Bachelor's (comp. science related)	$120,360	Computer companies, consulting firms, financial companies	Virgina, California, Texas, Florida, New York	33%
Financial Analyst	Bachelor's (mostly business related)	$99,890	Any industry	New York, California, Texas, Florida, Illinois	9%
Operations Research Analyst	Bachelor's (operations research, applied math)	$83,640	Any industry	California, Texas, Florida, Virginia, New York	23%
Mathematician and Statician	Master's (math, statistics)	$104,860	Federal Government, scientific reearch, development companies	Maryland, Washington, California, Peennsylvania, Massachusetts	11%
Computer and Information Research Scientist	Master's (comp.science or related to engineering)	$145,080	Any industry	California, Washington, Virgina, Maryland, Texas	26%
Advertising, Promotions & Marketing Manager	Bachelor's (marketing, business, consumer behavior)	$156,580	Consultants	California, New York, Texas, Illinois, Florida	8%
Computer & Information Systems Manager	Bachelor's (comp science or information technology)	$169,510	Any industry	California, Texas, New York, New Jersey, Florida	17%